Donor Privacy Policy

Boston Arts Academy Foundation, Inc. (“the Foundation”) values your support and respects your privacy. We have put this policy in place to protect your privacy and the security of the personal information you share with the Foundation.

The Foundation does not collect personally identifiable information about you unless you provide it to us voluntarily and knowingly. This information is only used by the Foundation to contact you with messages that are related to your interest in Boston Arts Academy.

We do not sell, trade, or rent your personal information to others. The Foundation does not disclose personal information to any third parties unless required to do so by law.

Credit card transactions on the Boston Arts Academy website are processed by Blackbaud Merchant Services. Blackbaud collects information on behalf of the Foundation and does not disclose it to any other party. Blackbaud uses industry-accepted encryption for the transmission of credit card information, which keeps visitor information secure, accurate, current, and complete.

To review your personal information, to opt out of future mailings, or to inquire about our privacy policy, please contact David Dines at ddines@bostonartsacademy.org.
